

Books about Our Civil Rights

John Armistead

The $66 Summer J

The Return of Gabriel Y

Ann Bausum

Freedom Riders: John Lewis and Jim Zwerg on the Front Lines of the Civil Rights Movement JNF

Ruby Bridges

Through My Eyes JNF

Chris Crowe

Getting Away with Murder: The True Story of the Emmett Till Case NF

Christopher Paul Curtis

The Watsons Go to Birmingham—1963 Y

James DeVito

The Silenced Y

Cory Doctorow

Little Brother Y

Sharon M. Draper

Fire from the Rock Y

David Dudley

Caleb's Wars Y

Nikki Giovanni

Rosa JNF

Phillip Hoose

Claudette Colvin: Twice Toward Justice JNF

Sheila Keenan

O, Say Can You See?: America's Symbols, Landmarks, and Inspiring Words JNF

Martin Luther King, Jr.

I Have a Dream JNF

Patricia McKissack

The Clone Codes Y

Cyborg J

A Friendship for Today J

Goin' Somewhere Special

The Visitors J

Walter Dean Myers

The Cruisers Y

The Journal of Biddu Owens: The Negro Leagues J

Linda Barrett Osborne

Miles to Go for Freedom: Segregation and Civil Rights in the Jim Crow Years JNF

Mary Jane Ryals

Cookie & Me J

Pam Muñoz Ryan

When Marian Sang: The True Recital of Marian Anderson: The Voice of a Century JNF

Augusta Scattergood

Glory Be J

Tanya Lee Stone

America's Top 10 Monuments JNF

Mildred D. Taylor

Roll of Thunder, Hear My Cry J

The Well: David's Story J

George David Weiss

What a Wonderful World

Rita Williams-Garcia

One Crazy Summer J

Brenda Woods

The Red Rose Box J

 Booktalk available on our website

 Available in audio format

 Series

 Picture Book

J Juvenile Fiction

Y Young Adult Fiction

NF Nonfiction

JNF Juvenile Nonfiction

(updated January 6, 2013)